Patricia Mangan Joins Merchants Bank as Corporate Banking Officer

SOUTH BURLINGTON, VT— Geoffrey R. Hesslink, Senior Vice President of Merchants Bank announced that Patricia Mangan was hired as a Corporate Banking Officer, for the Brattleboro and southeastern Vermont Region. Her primary office is located at 205 Main Street in Brattleboro.

Mangan has extensive credit and commercial banking experience, having received formal credit and commercial lending training with European American Bank in New York. She was a commercial lender for European American Bank in lower Manhattan for two years and for the next seven years, was a commercial lender in mid-town Manhattan for National Westminster Bank USA. Since April 1989, Mangan was employed with Vermont National Bank and its successor, Chittenden Bank. She served several roles with VNB and Chittenden, including Branch Manager, Credit Department Manager and most recently, Vice President and Senior Account Manager. For the past seven years Mangan has been a Commercial Lender in Brattleboro and southeastern Vermont.

“Her experience, skill set and market knowledge make her an ideal lender to serve the Brattleboro and southeastern Vermont market for Merchants Bank; we are delighted to have her on our team,” commented Hesslink.

Mangan graduated from St. John’s University in New York. She is originally from New York, and moved to Vermont in 1989. Mangan currently resides in Marlboro, Vermont with her husband and two daughters. She is Chairperson of the Board of St. Michael School in Brattleboro, served on the Capital Campaign for Brattleboro Memorial Hospital, and has just joined the Board of Thompson House Nursing Home.

“I am excited about my new position with Merchants Bank, and am looking forward to providing superior service to this marketplace.” said Mangan.
